HEADLINE NEWS

Story Topic(s):

Directions: Choose one story from the KidNuz podcast. As you listen, write down the “who, what, where, when, and why” of the story. Then, use your notes to write a headline for the news story. Draw a picture that captures the most important information.

TEACHER'S GUIDE: HEADLINE NEWS

Common Core Standards:

- i. Write informative/explanatory texts to examine and convey complex ideas and information clearly and accurately through the effective selection, organization, and analysis of content
- ii. Determine central ideas or themes of a text and analyze their development; summarize the key supporting details and ideas

Teaching Suggestions:

i. Scaffolding:

1. Before listening to the podcast, share several examples of real newspaper headlines.
2. After listening, choose one podcast and create a headline together as a class.
3. Allow students to work in partners or small groups to create their headlines.

ii. Enrichment:

1. Have students write a news article about the story they chose.
2. Have students work in groups to create a full news paper that features news stories and opinion pieces based on what they heard in the podcast.
